Owing to circumstances beyond our control, we shall not be able to commeure the publication of Part Second of Evangeline until about two weeks from the present time, when we certainly expect to have the manuscript in hand. We regret these delays, but cappot always have things as we would. We ark the indulgence of our patrons for this delay. We feel very confiden: the story will be resumed, unless some unforeseen misforfune should occur.

In the mean time can we not have one or two hundred names added to our list of subscribers ?

Remember the Pair.

We hope all our readers will remember that the County Agricultural Fair comes off next Wednesday and Thursday the 15th and 16th insts. in this place. Let there be a general turn out of "everybody and the test of mankind," as old Zech. Taylor said. The Fairs in this county ought always to

They were large yellow free stones, sweet and rich, and best of all, natural fruit, with the real peach favor. They reminded us of 25 years ago when the big yellow fellows used to gladden our childish eyes. We believe such peaches as these will excel any thing in the budded line, and the FINE PRACHES -Mr. HOLLINGSWORTH. any thing in the budded line, and the trees be much longer lived.

PERSONAL.—Our friend W. C. BARNES. of the Kansas First, who has been home for some weeks, left on Wednesday last to join his regiment, Mr. B. is a gentlemen of intelligence and ability, and we Lave the promise of letters from his ready pen for our columns.

Arrests.

During the week there have been quite a number of persons arrested as secessionists in this county. We hear of no specific charges, but intimations are thrown out that they are Knights of the Golden Circle, or some such secret organization. Among the number are ted are Geo. W. Grayson and two sons, of this township. Mr. G. has been regarded as a man of wealth, and has made no open demonstrations of his disloyalty, but uniformly given expressions favorable to the Union. He was a man of considers' le property, owning some 1,700 acres of land and considerable stock, all of which we believe was confirmed. One of the sone arrested with him has been in the rebe army, it is said, and another is there
